

May 1 - Pray for the health care professionals to be protected, given strength and endurance, and wisdom as they continue to serve the nation during this crisis. (Deut. 3:24)

May 2 - Pray for Crossbridge to be a church known for grace. Ask we continue to forgive freely, love when it's not easy, and give grace generously when it's needed. (I Tim. 1:5)

May 3 - Ask Jesus to move in and through the mess of our current crisis: convicting, directing, guiding, and loving us where we are, providing, caring and leading us into our next steps with Him. (Rev. 3:19)

May 4 - Pray we do not lose heart even in these uncertain and difficult times, trusting Jesus is our provider, Shepherd and the giver of all good things, even if we can't see it right now. (Jn. 10:11-16)

May 5 - Ask Jesus to comfort, encourage and strengthen all those who are suffering due to COVID19, those families who have lost loved ones and those currently in hospitals. (Psa. 103:3-6)

May 6 - Ask Jesus to continue to move us out of our comfort zones to humbly share our faith stories and His love in authentic conversations, and ask He reveal the times and ways to do so during COVID19. (Matt. 28:19)

May 7 - Pray for our college students finishing up online classes this month to be filled with Christ's wisdom as they study for finals and make decisions about their future. (Prov. 16:1)

May 8 - Pray for what lies ahead for Crossbridge, when we should move back into physical services, the transition to 2 services this summer, and planning with the building, boldly asking Jesus provide, restore, and fill us with His wisdom. (Matt. 28: 19-20)

May 9 - Pray the Crossbridge Students know they are loved and chosen by God for great purposes, asking Him to protect them from going after what appears to fulfill, but will leave them empty and alone. (Phil. 1:6)

May 10 - Ask for Mothers to be encouraged, uplifted and comforted as they celebrate the day to honor them very differently this year. Pray they feel their Savior's love above all, and they can look back and see His grace and provision during every season. (Gen. 3:20)

May 11 - Ask for comfort and grace for the students graduating this year as they grieve the loss of so many anticipated memorials: prom, graduation, all the senior events missed, and ask He continue to guide and direct their paths. (Prov. 16:3)

May 12 - Ask the Holy Spirit to empower us to follow Jesus' example and love others when it's hard or inconvenient, seeking to put other's interests above our own. (Phil. 2:4-8)

May 13 - Ask our Father to protect the Staff of Crossbridge from the distractions and deception of the enemy, keeping their hearts singularly focused on following His will for our church during this unprecedented time, leading in this new virtual space. (Eph. 6)

May 14 - Pray we are a people who, as far as it depends upon us, are at peace with all people. (Rom. 12:18)

May 15 - Pray for the children to connect with Crossbridge Kids via the great online resources, feeling engaged, and for them to see Jesus as their tender Shepherd who will always lead them. (Psl. 23)

May 16 - Ask Jesus to reveal what lies in the dark places of our hearts, so we can repent and ask for His light to replace the darkness with Truth, particularly the lies which come with isolation. (I John 1:6-7)

May 17 - Pray for those far from God to be drawn to virtually visit Crossbridge and other churches, finding truth, peace and comfort, leading to a life-changing relationship with Him. (Eph. 2:19)

May 18 - Pray the Holy Spirit reminds us we belong to Jesus, and we worship Him with our lives, not just on Sunday, filling us with His joy, even in this time of uncertainty. (Rom. 12:1)

May 19 - Pray we seek Jesus in the small and big moments, asking and then believing for His wisdom, provision, grace, and direction daily during the pandemic and beyond. (Matt. 7:7-11)

May 20 - Pray we hold our agendas and the things we love loosely enough for Jesus to be welcomed to come in and rearrange our priorities, and we respond in humility and obedience. (Rev. 3:19)

May 21 - Pray for our marriages to be centered on Christ, looking to Him for our identity, significance, and the love we need to love each other well. (Eph. 5:21)

May 22 - Pray we can be bold in who we are in Christ, standing firm in our faith, asking for strength to practice generosity in all areas, looking for little ways to serve even in physical distancing. (Prov. 28:1)

May 23 - Pray for the singles at Crossbridge to find their significance and delight in Christ alone, trusting His timing and plans for their future. (Prov. 16:1-3)

May 24 - Pray we are people who go to Jesus in prayer first before we start down our list of normal reactions to these stressful times, seeking His wisdom and presence. (Psa. 5:2)

May 25 - Pray for the process of building on our property, from the banks, to the contracts, to construction, and all details the Lord can more than aptly handle. (Psl. 127:1)

May 26 - Ask our loving Father to carry those who are going through difficulties: providing, strengthening, healing, and revealing His wisdom. (I Pet. 5:6-7)

May 27 - Pray for those who are far from God to receive an invitation, hear the perfect encouragement, have a truthful conversation at just the right moment, and respond to the Spirit. (I Cor. 1:18)

May 28 - Ask Jesus to open doors only He can in our lives and in those around us who need to hear Him or see Him work, and pray we respond by walking in faith, not depending on what we see to guide us. (2 Cor. 5:7)

May 29 - Pray we keep our eyes and hearts open for the opportunities God puts before us to share His love with others in unique ways during this time, yet still genuine and practical. (2 Cor. 5:20)

May 30 - Pray we have the audacious faith to be grateful for Jesus' work in us, even when it seems things couldn't get any worse, trusting He has our circumstances in His capable hands. (Acts 16:25)

May 31 - Pray for us to be people who seek after God with all our hearts, repenting of places where our hearts are divided, asking Jesus to make our hearts wholly His. (Psl. 51:10)
